I think this quotation means that people lose so much time doing nothing - procrastinating, but they could manage with that.

I agree with author's point of view. Time-wasting is a great problem nowadays. Many people prefer watching TV or scrolling videos on their smartphones instead of working. And usually we forget about the tasks that we have to do. Also some people don't want to do difficult things and think that they will finish them later. But they forget about them too and ~~never~~ don't have any time to do them.

When I was in a 9th grade I had to prepare for my literature exam. In the beginning of the year it seemed very difficult to me and I was afraid of it. I often didn't make my homework, read books. ~~Instead of that I watched films or did everything I watched films and~~ I watched films and did all other unnecessary things instead of that. But one day I thought that if I didn't stop procrastinating I wouldn't pass the exam. And I started to learn a lot of material, write essays for it. I also got motivation from my friends and it helped me to stop wasting my time.

The procrastination is one of main problems in our days, but every person who really wants to can deal with it if they have a strong will.
